The George R. Smith College, Sedalia, Mo., has recently added to its faculty, Prof. Jacob E. Jones of Washington, D. C., who is a B. S. of the State College of Delaware and an A. B. of Howard University, and a teacher of some experience. Professor Jones will have charge of the Normal Department of the institution, for which position he is specially fitted.

The new principal of the Grammar Department is Miss Alda M. Johnson, of Springfield, Mo., a graduate of the Normal Department of Atlanta University. Miss Johnson has taught in Straight University, New Orleans, and at Atlanta University, where she has also taken post graduate work along special lines.

If the plan being worked up by Prof. Joe E. Herford of establishing a fraternal union among the various secret societies of the state can be carried through, and the prospect is very encouraging, a long step will be made in the direction of safe and sane operations in these organizations. The idea being advanced is that all the societies should work upon a uniform schedule of dues and benefits and tables have been prepared which, while uniform, still permit each order to pay as little or much in the way of benefits as it chooses. The plan is being worked out this week through a committee representing each of the larger secret bodies.

An illustration of what Negroes can accomplish by intelligent protest against unjust conditions is shown in the results following the recent campaign against dirty Jim Crowism upon southern railroads. The agitation was directed by Dr. Booker T. Washington, and was successful in many ways. Railroad officials have already ordered improvements in some cases and others are to follow. The next step will be for the leaders of our race to teach the rank and file how to appreciate these considerations by better conduct on trains and better preparations as to appearance and cleanliness before asking for better accommodations. Other people will respect us as we respect ourselves.

It is wholly unreasonable to take the position that the dominant race is not justified in some instances in asking for separate accommodations for the races upon street and railroad cars. But our people can easily remove every such reason by a proper amount of pride in appearance, bodily cleanliness and quiet conduct. In this way the whole question can be solved and Jim Crowism will finally disappear. Instead of showing a disposition to grow. We must examine and correct our own faults while asking others to do so, otherwise we are unreasonable instead of the other people. The proper balance in every issue is that one should know his duties as well as his rights. Let the school, the press and

SMITH'S DRUG STORE, 18th AND TRACY.

Smith's Drug Store the Sansation of the Town. Everybody Going.

Conspicuously before the public's eyes is Theo. Smith, our druggist, who is located on the busy corner of 18th and Tracy. If you belong to that class of men and women who think and do things, don't ever be guilty of saying that you have never visited this up-to-date store. His latest creation is the Tango Sundae on a Blazer, 15 cents. This is a combination of the best fruits and fruit syrups incorporated with ice cream and capped with angel cake, served in gold and silver containers under a bamboo tree among gleaming electric lights and before the breeze of an electric fan. This is irresistible.

The following is a list of distinguished guests and popular society people who have visited and declared the Tango Sundae to be the most delicious they have ever eaten.

THEY SAY

—That Theodore Smith has succeeded in spite of h. and h. w.

—That there are people running buffet flats whom you would never suspect.

—That you can't pay $25 a month rent on a $20 salary unless you've got a side line.

—That the society girls are asking "have you seen that swell all-glass table at Smith's?"

—That a good many Negroes going to summer resorts will be buying coal by the basket this winter.

—That a certain young teacher living on avenue was secretly married to a Pullman porter last winter.

—That all the girls make a grand rush for that classy glass top table when they drink their sodas at Smith's.

—That a certain groom is unable to relinquish his attention to a former sweetheart lest there be trouble. Some hold, eh?

—That a well known man while extolling the virtues of a dear friend was too of some startling incidents of which he was not cognizant.

—That a well known Miss lost her skirt on Eighteenth street last Sunday afternoon, and what do you reckon she had on beside it?

—That a certain teacher who is married should give the single teachers a chance and not try to draw a salary from the school board with a husband at the same time.

—That two society leaders had a hair pulling over the failure of one to pay the other 25 cents she had contributed for her to buy a present for a well known June bride.

—That an automobile party stopped at a certain home last week and while the landlady was in the kitchen somebody relieved her of a gun which was always kept under her pillow.

It pays to be honest, but sometimes pay day is late in showing up.

What has become of the old fashioned man who used to compare a small person to a pint of cider?

Y. M. C. A. Notes

If you have not seen the progress made on the new building you should visit it and get an inspiration.

A great effort is now being made on the part of the workers to push the collections in order that we may be able to push the work to completion. Will you help them?

Last Sunday afternoon a goodly number of men heard the lecture by Mr. H. J. Mesley and were highly pleased. His "Appeal to Men" sounded the right note and was well received. Next Sunday afternoon the Assistant Secretary will tell of the work at the training school at Lake Geneva, Wis., and of the great enthusiasm of the men engaged in the study of Association work.
